New California Continuing Ed requirements effective February 29th!

For all live, correspondence and online continuing education courses the requirements change as of February 29th. You will now only be allowed to complete 15 hours of course study in a 24 hour period. That means that the 45-hours for renewals after the first renewal will require 3 days to complete.

OnlineEd continuing education course costs, with your discount:

45-hour license renewal packages $39.95

15-hour license renewal package $35.95

Starting on February 20th we will be offering Career Enhancement/Professional Development Courses. These courses are designed to help with today's changing market.

4 REASONS TO USE OnlineEd!

1. High quality, low cost.
2. Since 1998 we have asked real estate agents that take our courses two questions. 1) Did you find the information useful? and 2) Did you find the site easy to use?" Out of a possible score of 5.00, we have a 4.99 for the useful information question and a 4.98 for the ease of use question.
3. On multiple occasions state jurisdictions have said that we have outstanding course materials.
4. Many major real estate offices, real estate associations, real estate schools and colleges have chosen onlineEd to be their official real estate education provider.
